

Come to the

PADDLE CONFERENCE

Organized by the Recreational Canoeing Association of BC
(Website is bccanoe.com)

The event is on April 4th-6th, 2014 at Camp Kawkawa in Hope, BC and we welcome people all ages and levels of paddling experience (and instructors).

Come enjoy a weekend of fun, learning, and meeting other like-minded recreationalists. Participate by teaching some skills or a topic or helping out. There will be a variety of workshops and presentations, catered food by the camp, and wonderful door prizes for the AGM and Instructor AGM meetings.

Early bird registration will be open until end of March 24th and final registration will end on March 31st. Check our website for the on-line registration process or go to this link: <https://sites.google.com/site/rcabcpaddlingconference/>

Help with two workshops/presentations and receive a $50 travel subsidy.

Other volunteers will receive a gear prize.

Canoes (and gear) will be provided for those who do not have one.

Any questions, contact Kári-Ann Thor at kalthors@mac.com or 604-253-5450.

THIS GREAT PRICE BELOW INCLUDES ALL FOOD FOR THE WEEKEND, PLUS OVER 40 WORKSHOPS/EVENTS, PLUS TENTING OR CABIN/CHALET!!

Tenting (after the March 24th early bird deadline, the price is $126 for everyone)

- Kids (0-4) Free, Kids (5-12) - $90 / Teens (13-18), Students - $100 / Adults - $110

Cabin/Chalet (after the March 24th early bird deadline, the price is $146 for everyone)

- Kids (0-4) Free, Kids (5-12) - $110 / Teens (13-18), Students - $120 / Adults - $130