

RCABC Lakewater Instructor Examiner

A moving water instructor approved by the executive to teach and examine their own lakewater courses may also run recertifications for lakewater instructors

The process for a lakewater Instructor to become a Lakewater Instructor examiner is as follows:

A Lakewater Instructor interested in becoming a Lakewater Instructor Examiner, must:

- 1) Take and pass an instructor examiner clinic. (see website or instructor coordinator for date/times for these. Instructor_coordinator@bccanoe.com)
- 2) Co teach with a master instructor OTHER than the Master Instructor that first examined them (recommended 3 courses) at the lakewater instructor level.
- 3) Apply to the RCABC executive to teach and examine their own Lakewater Instructor courses (must accompany the request with written recommendation of the master instructor that they co-taught with).

For more information contact the instructor coordinator of RCABC.
